

Punch Today Hard In The Face Cross Stitch Chart – Designed By Claire Brown XStitch

Now that the whole world is on lockdown, there's no better time to get your stitch on.

This simple, quick and easy-to-do cross stitch chart is perfect for anyone who likes to Get. Shit. Done.

About the designer: I'm Claire Brown and I have been designing cross stitch patterns and kits commercially since 2004, first as Miso Funky, then as The Bellwether and now as myself. I've had my work featured in museums, galleries, print and digital media and even on TV, both in the UK, Australia, Europe and USA.

I design patterns that are clear, simple and quick to do for beginners and experienced stitchers alike – no bullshit, just a fun chart to whip up quickly and easily

This cross stitch chart is designed to be stitched on 14ct aida. In the illustration above, I used bright aqua aida from DMC and the following DMC threads:

The finished piece will measure approximately 4.1" x 6.4" or 10.4cm x 16.2cm when stitched on 14ct aida.
